Make connections that could help bring a missing person home

If you or someone you know have been impacted by the mysterious disappearance of a loved one, plan to attend Missing in Harris County Day to make connections with local law enforcement and social service agencies dedicated to finding missing persons.

What to expect at Missing in Harris County Day:

- Personal guides to help navigate you through the Missing Persons reporting process
- Private area for family and friends to talk with Missing Persons professionals, file a report and provide other documentation
- Forensic professionals performing cheek swabs to collect DNA from family members for entry into the national Missing Persons database
- CyberSecurity demonstrations and pointers for protecting yourself and your child online
- Panel discussion with representatives from Texas EquuSearch, National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, HPD and HCSO Missing Persons officers and other missing persons experts
- Electronic fingerprinting of children and take-home child ID kits
- Public area with booths and a play area for children

Bring the following if you are searching for a missing loved one:

- Your photo ID
- Photos of the missing person – helpful photos will include the person photographed with any identifying features, such as tattoos or birthmarks, or personal items, such as favorite earrings
- Two of the missing person's closely related family members from the mother's side for the collection of DNA
- X-rays, dental or medical records, police reports or other identifying documents that can be scanned and placed on file
- Families and friends are welcome to wear memorial t-shirts, bring posters or any literature to display and commemorate their missing loved one (any literature or photos left behind will not be returned)

Registration is encouraged, but not required.

To ensure your missing loved one is commemorated register at:
online.centerforthemissing.org/2016-missing-in-harris-county-day

All registrants will receive a yellow ribbon imprinted with their loved one's name on it at the Welcome Table
